GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

In John E. Madden's stable at Churchill Downs, the same one that housed the mighty Plaudit last spring while he was training for the Kentucky Derby and Clark Stakes, is a good looking colt named Hapsburg, who is a half brother to that grand racer Hamburg. From this youngster Mr. Madden is expecting great things, not only on account of his pedigree, but because the colt has shown high class. Albert Simons, who trained Plaudit and others of the Madden string so well last season, will not be with that successful turfman again this season, Mr. Madden having determined to give greater personal attention than ever to the training of his horses. He makes periodical visits to the track here already, and as the time for active training begins to draw nearer and nearer his visits will become more and more frequent and his stays at the Downs longer. Mr. Madden has not yet secured the services of a jockey for the coming spring racing season, but as he is to have his lately purchased three-year-old, Mazo, in the Kentucky Derby and Clark Stakes, he is already looking over the list of boys of known ability. It is not at all unlikely that Simms or "Tiny" Williams will come in for consideration at the head of the list. Last season Simms rode Plaudit to an easy victory over Lieber Karl in the Derby, and Williams rode him to a still easier victory over the same colt in the Clark Stakes a week later. Brown Dick thinks mighty well of his good three-year-old filly Souchon, who is now at Churchill Downs waiting for her training season to begin. She is entered in the Tennessee and Kentucky Oaks this spring. She was a rattling good two-year-old, and won some good races last summer. Since then she has grown and broadened out wonderfully, and now she is as strong, healthy and as fine a looking bit of horse flesh as any stable in the land can show. Brown Dick will send her to the post at Memphis in the Tennessee Oaks good and fit.

"Rapier," commenting upon the Arab as compared to the English thoroughbred in the Badminton Magazine, says: "I do not in the least want to disparage the Arab steed, belief in whom was an article of faith in childhood. Still, facts are facts, and I must give this letter, which comes to me from Calcutta: 'Dear Rapier: In the October number of the Badminton Magazine you point out a single method of testing the racing capabilities of Arabs, even with allowance of twenty-eight pounds, which they would get under the terms of the Goodwood Cup. Let me through your pages point out that in India, with an allowance of forty-two pounds, admirers of the Arab decline to enter the lists against English and Australian horses. As a matter of fact, 1856 was the last year in which an Arab won the Viceroy's Cup. This year the Viceroy's Cup will be worth nominally 21,000 rupees, or say $4,331. The distance for that race is a mile and three-quarters, and the weights for the different classes are:

Class.	3 yrs.	4 yrs.	5 yrs.	& aged.
English.....	8 11	9 4	9 7	9 7
Australian.....	7 12	9 2	9 6	9 7
Arabs.....	4 11	6 0	6 6	6 7

"In spite of such tempting offers I do not remember having seen an Arab even entered for the Cup. Ask Lord W. Beresford, who has raced in India for twenty years and won five V. C.'s, whether he has even seen an Arab run in any of them."

The Arab in America has been put to other uses, except in the case of Mr. Keene Richard's experiments, which never produced anything of special merit. Meddler was bred to an Arab mare, if recollection serves, as well as to several trotters, but what the result was is not known.

Form in California is shocking the regulars and comments are vitriolic.—Horse Fancier.

Wrong. The California form is far from untrue. If it shocks the regulars, the regulars are out of line. If the comments are vitriolic, there is no reason for it. The biting acidity of comment should not be leveled at such racing as comes out of the daily action at Ingleside and Oakland. As the comment drifts to DAILY RACING FORM, however, most of the acid of comment is sprinkled over small boys who ride and owners that do not know.

The untruth of racing under elastic weather conditions turns up less often on the California courses than on those of the Jockey Club in the season when the weather and footing average well.

There is no doubt that 'Gene Leigh has in charge some smashing good two-year-olds, so far as promise goes. When here recently Tully Coulter said they were a grand lot. An eastern writer who has inspected them recently says:

"Most of Leigh's horses had been clipped, and I saw them to better advantage than on my previous visit there. Collectively, Leigh has the finest looking lot of two-year-olds that I ever saw anywhere, and it seems to me that nothing short of an epidemic of disease among them can prevent them from figuring in the big eastern stakes.

"About eight of these youngsters are splendid individually, and at least four of them, so far as breeding, style and build go, would not be out of place in any Futurity field. The Bramble—Lady Wayward colt, and the Kingston—Libby L. colt I still consider the pick of the lot. But the Kingston—Servia colt, the Bramble—Caledonia colt, the Bramble—Queen Beluga colt and the Bramble—Red Dress colt are but little if any behind them in point of excellence."

No really first class youngster has shown as yet either in California or New Orleans. Fair to middling is the best that can be said, but the stake events are yet to come and the "good things" to be unbottled.—Horse Fancier.

This is not seasonable or in line with the facts. A "first class youngster" out of two or three February races would be a marvel. There may be no such youngsters racing at Ingleside or Oakland. But it seems as if Ed Corrigan's Golden Rule, Sardine and St. Anthony are more than fair "early birds" of the two-year-old brigade. Then there is Lomond and Yellow Tail who have above the average of performance—in the winter season—about them. There are more to follow, if report is as true as its doings outside actual racing. Wait until May 1 and then pass on the California two-year-olds of 1899. The New Orleans lot, so far shown, are not much.

"Moose" Taylor has been ruled off the turf by the stewards of the California Jockey Club for acting as agent in negotiating unsavory jobs. Early in the nineties Taylor rode for Carlisle and Shields and was a very capable lightweight jockey, frequently winning good races at Washington Park, Garfield and Hawthorne. Subsequently he drifted to San Francisco and for a time rode for Tom Williams, who took quite a fancy to the boy. In his big hearted way he looked after "Moose's" finances and made him save his earnings until he amassed enough to branch out for himself as a horse owner. But he was an incorrigible bettor and soon lost all he had gained. A broken leg incapacitated him for riding and for some time he has, like many others who hang on the shadowy edge of the turf, been "doing the best he can." His best seems to have been very bad.

An incident of last Saturday's racing at Oakland is thus described in the Examiner: "Al Martin, a horseman, said to be the owner of Lost Girl, bid $1,500 in one gulp for Rey del Tierra when the latter was offered for sale in the usual manner by Judge Murphy. Purser, the owner of the horse, made a gesture indicating his readiness to let the horse go, whereupon Martin started down in his inside vest pocket for a roll of great green paper. Either the color of the money or the warning of the selling judge startled Purser, who turned and in the nick of time offered the owner's privileged $5 advance and retained the horse. Lost Girl's owner pocketed $572.50 for running second. Purser figured up a loss of $705 for winning the race."

Trainer F. W. Doss is in hot water at Oakland because Opponent, a hot favorite, ran as if the state of the odds was distasteful to him. Hugh Penny, in the same stable, had already been barred from starting because of similar queer running and in this case the judges notified Doss that all of the horses in his stable would be barred in the future unless they were more consistent. The horses all belong to Barney Weller, who is at Hot Springs, Ark.

At the annual sale of the Wellington Park yearlings, held at Auckland, New Zealand, twenty-three yearlings sold for $27,000. The highest price of $5,250 was paid for a St. Leger colt. Since the first annual sale, in 1887, fourteen youngsters have sold for $74,275.

Eleven horses belonging to P. Dunne have arrived at Louisville from J. V. Shipp's farm near Midway, Ky., where they have passed the winter. Joseph Tag is in charge and the list is as follows:

Salvable, b. h. 6, by Salvator—Lydia.
Bannockburn, br. c. 4, by Hayden Edwards—Bettie Blaise.
Silver Tone, b. c. 3, by Falsetto—Silver Thread.
Approval, b. c. 3, by Pessara—Ruperta.
Token, ch. c. 2, by Hanover—Keepsake.
Brown colt, 2, by Kingston—Mary M.
Brown colt, 2, by Riley—Hattie Harris.
Bay colt, 2, by Riley—Miss Howard.
Chestnut colt, 2, by Wagner—Vanity Fair.
Chestnut colt, 2, by Wagner—Hortense.
Brown colt, 2, by Riley—Emma.

Two names claimed for two-year-olds in the big string of Eugene Leigh were rejected by the registrar. New names substituted and registered are:

Vulcan, ch. c, by Kingston—Arrowgrass.
Saxby, br. c, by Strathmore—Kelp.

CONEY ISLAND SUMMER STAKES.

A list of stakes is offered by the Coney Island Jockey Club to be run during the June meeting at Sheepshead Bay. The conditions will be published shortly. All are stakes that have been a part of the Sheepshead Bay program heretofore, but whereas the added money to each was $750 last year it is now increased to $1,000 in the case of four and to $800 in the case of the others:

The $1,000 stakes are as follows:
Spring—For 2-year-olds; Futurity Course.
June—For 2-year-olds; 3/4 mile, main track.
Bay Hurdle—For 4-year-olds and upward; 2 miles.
Independence Steeplechase—For 4-year-olds and upward; the full course, about 2 1/2 miles.
The $800 stakes are:
Rosebud—For 2-year-old fillies; selling allowances; 5/8 mile.
Daisy—For 2-year-olds; 5/8 mile, on turf.
Pansy—For 2-year-olds; selling allowances; 3/4 mile, on turf.
Grass—For 3-year-olds and upward; selling allowances; 1 1/8 miles, on turf.

THE CALIFORNIA DERBY.

Discussing possibilities of the nearby California Derby, the San Francisco Examiner of last Monday says: "The California Derby will be run at the next Ingleside meeting and will naturally come in for considerable discussion. Three weeks ago Sam McKeever and Survivor had perhaps the greatest following, but the former is not given much consideration at present, as he was a very sick colt a fortnight ago, while his only race since his sickness was anything but a promising one. Formero, owing to his impressive win the first time out this season, showed that he has regained his best eastern form and is now regarded as the most likely winner. Should he defeat Napamax this afternoon, there is no doubt that the Southern California colt will be the favorite on Derby day. Corsini is highly regarded, and will go to the post with a big following, as he is bred on Derby lines. While Olinthus may find the Derby distance a little beyond him, Galen Brown trusts to his weight-packing ability to land him close up. First Tenor is sure to be the stable reliance of Burns & Waterhouse, and, with the special preparation that he is receiving is sure to carry a world of money. Horton, while thoroughly game and honest, should find the weight too heavy, as he is a rather small colt. Lime Water is a grandly bred colt, and with the needed rest should be given some consideration, as he will doubtless run ahead of his recent form. Survivor, in Pat Dunne's hands, is sure to go to the post ready to go the race of his life, and should be a hard colt to dispose of, as he has displayed more than usual class in his recent races. The Santa Anita colors have often been carried to the front in a Derby and this year Los Medanos will be the stable representative. While showing fair class, he has been rather an unlucky colt, and may be a better youngster than generally considered.

"All in all, the California Derby for 1899 has a very open appearance and should bring together the best-class field that has yet faced the starter in this classic event. The probable starters and jockeys are as follows:

"Corsini, 122 (Bullman); Survivor, 122 (H. Martin); Formero, 122 (Spencer); Olinthus, 122 (Shields); Los Medanos, 122 (E. Jones); Sam McKeever, 122 (Piggott); First Tenor, 122 (Thorpe); Horton, 122 (N. Turner); Lime Water, 122 (—)."

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Gossip from San Francisco says: "John O'Neill and Max Blumenthal have left for Hot Springs. Bill Beverly is the leading winner among the California bookmakers. Frank Eckert has taken John O'Neill's place in the Oakland and Ingleside rings."

At Oakland this afternoon Tom Ryan will sell all his horses now racing in California. Among those to be sold are Dunois, Goal Runner, The Woer, Don't Skip Me, Al and Montallade. First Call, Prince Blazes and Dare II. are also to be sold.

The brown filly, by Lamplighter—Kitty Clive, the property of T. C. McDowell, badly fractured her jaw at Ashland a few days ago. This is considered one of the best yearling fillies in Kentucky.

George Boyd, Maximo Gomez, Alpen, Dr. Eichberg, Voter, Laverock and Empyrian are the declarations from the Brighton Handicap made March 1.

Subscriber.—The first book on the last race at Oakland Thursday was killed by the judges. Ticker bets are not effected by the decision.

Jockeys Irving and Rowden have signed to ride for the Kensico Stable this year.

AMERICAN TURF CONGRESS HISTORY.

The creation idea of the American Turf Congress is shown in the following by-law: This organization shall be known as the American Turf Congress, and has for its object the improvement of the breed and the development of horses through promotion of the interests of the American running turf; the prevention, detection and punishment of fraud thereon; and the adoption of regulations and rules, to be known as the American Racing Rules for the uniform government of racing.

The following are the first minutes of the American Turf Congress, as shown by its records:

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 21, 1883.

The Turf Committee met at the rooms of the Louisville Jockey Club at 12 o'clock, Wednesday, November 21st, the following gentlemen being present: T. J. Megibben and E. D. Lawrence, Latonia Jockey Club, Covington, Ky.;

James F. Robinson, Kentucky Association, Lexington, Ky.; John M. Harney and L. A. Clark, St. Louis Jockey Club, St. Louis, Mo.; James Franklin and G. W. Darden, Blood Horse Association, Nashville, Tenn.; R. C. Pate and D. L. Hall, Driving Park, Chicago, Ill.; J. E. Brewster, Washington Park, Chicago, Ill.; R. W. Simmons, New Orleans Jockey Club and Brighton Beach, N. Y.; R. S. Montgomery, Jockey Club, Memphis, Tenn.; M. L. Clark and B. G. Bruce, Jockey Club, Louisville, Ky.

The breeding and racing interest was represented by C. L. Hunt, St. Louis, Mo.; Charles Reed, Saratoga, N. Y.; Gen. A. Buford and John Funk, Kentucky.

The meeting was called to order by Col. M. L. Clark, who stated that the object for which the meeting had been called was to establish a uniform scale of weights and adopt suitable rules for the government of racing and to take action in all matters that would tend to advance racing interests in all parts of America.

On Colonel Clark's motion T. J. Megibben was called to the chair and B. G. Bruce appointed secretary. Colonel Hunt moved that a committee of five be appointed on a scale of weights, and the chair appointed Colonel Clark, G. W. Darden, L. A. Clark, R. W. Simmons and Colonel Hunt. Colonel Clark moved that a committee be appointed to frame a uniform set of rules which was carried and the chair appointed Messrs. Lawrence, Harney, Brewster, Franklin, Pate, Simmons, Montgomery and Bruce. In order to give the committees time to prepare their reports the convention adjourned until 7:30 p.m.

On re-assembling the committee on weights submitted their report which was adopted without discussion. The committee on rules not being ready to report were given further time and made their report on Friday morning at 9 o'clock, and the by-laws, rules and regulations and betting rules were adopted as published.

Captain Franklin moved, and it was adopted, that clubs running under these rules agree to harmonize in all things as far as practicable and especially as to the time of holding their meetings, and will not by extra days before or after the regular time, interfere with time of other associations.

On motion of Colonel Clark, which was adopted, the different associations and clubs were requested to run under these rules and regulations as adopted by this convention so as to secure uniformity in racing and its government.

On motion B. G. Bruce was elected secretary for the ensuing year.

On motion Chicago, Ill., was selected for the next meeting, the second Wednesday in November, 1884.

There being no further business the convention adjourned. B. G. BRUCE, Secretary.

The next meeting was held at Chicago, Ill., on November 12, 1884. The minutes were as follows:

CHICAGO, ILL., Nov. 12, 1884.

The convention met at 12 o'clock on Wednesday, November 12, 1884, at the office of the Washington Park Club, Palmer House, Chicago, Ill. In the absence of the president the secretary called the meeting to order, and by unanimous vote, Col. M. Lewis Clark was called to the chair. Several telegrams and letters were read authorizing parties to act for their clubs and letters from Monmouth Park, Jerome Park and Coney Island declining to send delegates.

The following clubs were represented: Louisiana Jockey Club, Memphis Jockey Club, Louisville Jockey Club, Kentucky Association, Lexington, Ky.; Latonia Jockey Club, Fair Association, St. Louis, Mo.; Pittsburg Jockey Club, Brighton Beach Association and Washington Park Club, Chicago, Ill.

On motion of J. E. Brewster the rules of racing were taken up and the convention went into executive session for their consideration. The rules were carefully considered each by each and the changes made are published in the rules.

On motion of Colonel Clark, which was adopted, the forfeit orders issued by Chicago Driving Park in 1884 would not be recognized by other clubs, as they had failed to pay their own purses.

A new by-law was adopted defining the duties of the secretary and fixing his salary at $100 per annum (for which, see in the by-laws).

B. G. Bruce was elected secretary for the coming year and St. Louis was selected for the next meeting of the convention on the second Wednesday of November, 1885. There being no further business the convention adjourned Thursday evening, November 13, 1884.

B. G. BRUCE, Secretary.

The next meeting was held at St. Louis, November 11, 1885. Gen. J. F. Robinson was made president.

The next meeting was held at Cincinnati, Ohio, on November 10, 1886.

For the first time in the minutes the name American Turf Congress appears. Always heretofore the assembly had been referred to as the "Convention," but at this meeting the minutes began "The American Turf Congress met," etc., etc. Mr. Charles Green was made president.

Judging from the rules the name American Turf Congress was adopted at the 1885 meeting, and so appeared in the rules of 1886.

The first secretary, B. G. Bruce, died in 1891, and E. C. Hopper was elected to fill his place.
